

ACCENT ON ASSISTING

Saskatchewan Dental Assistants' Association

E-News Version

YEAR 2014—ISSUE 5

OCTOBER, 2014

Opening on Council: The SDAA council has a director position open. Please submit your resume prior to October 24, 2014.

Communication and Dental Assistants: How would you like to receive your communication from SDAA? Please complete this quick survey prior to October 15, 2014. LINK

Value Issues for Dental Assistants: Please complete this quick survey to help SDAA better understand the things you value. Please respond prior to October 15, 2014. LINK

Promoting Oral Health Campaign for Pregnant Women & Young Children: The Saskatchewan Prevention Institute campaign to promote oral health among Pregnant Women and Young children will run from September to December 2014. Educational materials are available for free. Follow the link to register and order free materials: LINK. The full document is available at LINK.

Communicating with Impact: The Silent Power of a Great Team & Oral Cancer - An Emerging Pandemic? — November 8, 2014 — Queensbury Centre—Regina SK

Saturday, November 8 at Queensbury Convention Centre. For brochure: LINK

Developing an Infection Prevention & Control Manual Tailored for Your Office : Saturday, November 22, 2014—Winnipeg MB LINK

Creating a Tobacco Free Future for the People of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon Inn, Saskatoon SK—Saturday, January 17, 2015—8:00am to 4:00pm LINK

Dental Assisting Student Tutors: The dental assisting students at SIAST are looking for experienced dental assistants in the Regina area to be tutors. If you have some spare time in the evenings and weekends and want to earn some extra money, please contact SIAST Wascana Campus (Regina) Learning Services, Room 207.12 (Library) at (306) 775-7729 OR email: LINK

Credit Shortfall? Our credit shortfall letters were mailed on October 1... no letter means that you are likely okay!